

Advice for challenging days
(I Peter 4:7-11)

“I don’t know if you realize it, but what you’re dealing with is the end of the world!”

He wasn’t exaggerating when he used the words, “ _____ ” in v. 12.

Peter’s advice for how the church ought to respond to difficult times is still applicable.

Keep your head and exercise _____ to know how you should pray

Hospitality implies a _____ towards one another.

Be like a good _____ with whatever gift God has placed at your disposal, or...

Figure out what you can do and do it to serve others and glorify God.

Peter uses a word that means keep _____ your love for one another.

He’s describing a love which requires the _____ we’ve built up over the years.

Love passes up the temptation to point out the _____ and _____ of others.

It helps the one expressing the love not fall prey to a _____ spirit.

It helps the one needing the love to experience _____ and to learn _____ from a more mature believer.