

If you're going to be a zealot....
(I Peter 3:13-16)

"ABT" means A _____ B ____ T _____.

That z-word literally derives from the word Peter used in v. 13. The text is

"_____ for what is good."

This kind of zeal would _____ a gracious response to anyone inquiring about one's faith.

The most strident activists among the Jews of the first century were the Zealots.

Peter feared that some of his readers were inclined to adopt the _____
_____ of this stiff-necked bunch.

What if we cared as much about the _____ _____ _____ as we do some political platform?

Our lives ought to make it easier for people to _____ _____ in the things of God.

Sterling _____ would deter those ill-disposed towards Christians.

_____ _____ in your heart, Christ as Lord.

Peter called upon his readers to ready themselves with an answer to "anyone" who inquired about the _____ of their _____.

Peter wanted the world to know of the _____ and _____ of the Christian message
