

“Let’s go home!” said the prophet
(Isaiah 55:6-13)

The situation described is in the sixth century B.C., somewhere in Babylon.

Being an exile in Babylon wasn’t so bad.

Many exiles chose to remain in Babylon, unwilling to leave their _____.

The hometown god, _____, offered you direction and prosperity.

Isaiah essentially asked, “Does all of this stuff really satisfy you?”

He used three different types of prophetic _____ to make his point

1. He employed _____
2. He employed three kinds of logical _____
  - a. The _____ argument
  - b. The _____ argument
  - c. The _____ argument

“The grass withers, the flower fades; but the word of our God will stand forever” (Isaiah 40:8).

3. He employed an _____ of hope

Layton can emerge from COVID 19 stronger, healthier, and more creative in mission and ministry

We need to understand that our purpose can’t be fully realized unless we truly seek God