

A time of transition

I hope you'll indulge me for a personal note. As you know, my dad was among the first 100,000 people in the U.S. to pass away from COVID-19. His death in many ways opened the door for my mother to move to Wisconsin. Today's the day of her arrival. She'll be living at Layton Terrace, some four blocks away. Laura and I appreciate your prayer support and kind words of encouragement as we transition to the role of her primary caretaker. When COVID concerns and precautions are eased, I look forward to having her here in worship.

This morning our own Leandro Chico will step from behind his desk in the media room to share God's Word in my absence. Pastor Keith

Saturday, September 12—The last time we gathered for a men's breakfast was a whole half-year ago! These well-attended events, focused upon fellowship and discipleship, have been missed to be sure. You're invited to an outdoor dining experience (good food is another focus) with social distancing measures observed. Possibilities for breakfasts in the coming months will be determined on a case-by-case basis, always with the safety and well being of participants in mind. But for now—come and enjoy if you're comfortable in doing so.

Fall Bible Study begins next Sunday with the following classes gathering online at 9:00 AM, via GoToMeeting.

For those may have been wondering, Operation Christmas Child is still on for this year. This means we have lots of work to do in catching up on contributions of needed items. In the lobby you'll find a receptacle for donations and a list of needs. You may also access a regularly updated list of needs on our website. Our goal is 250 boxes.

Thank you for being attentive to your stewardship during these
